Summary

I am Computer Science Graduate, having 6+ years of development experience in web and mobile apps.

I am having experience in Front-End Development using ReactJS, NextJS, JavaScript. Having these skills, I think I can do much better in the future in this field.

Interested in Cutting Edge Technologies because Computer Technologies are not going to stop anymore.

I am also worked with React-Native Framework and have experience in this. As these also work for Hybrid Mobile Applications.
